Why “Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood” Worked (and What Fred Was Really Like)

Eliot Daley

Eliot Daley will take us behind the scenes at “Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood” to describe the concept behind the program and the dynamics of interaction between Fred (Mister) Rogers and the viewing child that made him such a beloved member of American families.

While serving as associate minister of First Presbyterian Church of Princeton (now Nassau), Eliot Daley wrote many articles about the influence of TV on American families and children. This led to his connection with Fred Rogers who invited Eliot to join him in producing “Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood.” Eliot served as president of the production company and wrote many early episodes. Eliot later served as a management consultant in the health care field and now writes punditry posted at www.eliotdaley.com.

Research, Relationship, Reconciliation, and Reparation

Nancy Prince

With a background of the hurts borne by Princeton’s African Americans, hear the story of a “Partnership in Faith” that began with the 2006 celebration of 250 years of the Presbyterian Church in Princeton. Relationship and reconciliation grew between the Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church, a historically black church, and Nassau, leading to several significant events, including an offering of reparations in 2015. Hear the story from someone closely involved.

Nancy Prince has been an active member of the Presbyterian Church (USA) since 1963 and a member of Nassau Presbyterian Church since October, 2003. She regularly attended the Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church from 2001–2003 when her husband the Rev. David Prince served as Interim Pastor. She returned to Witherspoon Church in the summer of 2014 for regular attendance and congregational gatherings when David served as Pastor-in-Residence.

Burma/Myanmar through Our Eyes

11:15 a.m., Assembly Room

Work and a better life in Burma/Myanmar depend on speaking English well enough to become a tour guide, an interpreter, an employee of an international company, and so much more. Come and hear stories from Joyce, Susan, and Michael’s January trip to visit our mission partner Cetana’s English language centers. Be inspired by the teachers and fall in love with the children and youth in whose faces you can read the dreams and hopes of families. Leave knowing how you are making a difference!

Joyce MacKichan Walker went to Burma/Myanmar on behalf of the Mission and Outreach Committee to enrich their view of Cetana’s vital work in this country still struggling to emerge from years of military rule.

Susan and Michael Jennings empower this work with their love for Burma and their leadership within Cetana by leading a yearly exploratory excursion to this fascinating country.

Lois Young, who founded Cetana with her husband, Jack, and her siblings over twenty years ago, will join us!

In-depth Bible Study with George Hunsinger

1 Corinthians

Sundays, 9:15 a.m., through May 14
Maclean House (Garden Entrance)

George Hunsinger leads a verse-by-verse examination of the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians. In this epistle the Corinthian congregation wrestles with doctrinal and ethical issues in conversation with their “founding pastor,” Paul, and Paul offers compelling good news in his understanding of the cross, the resurrection, worship, and life together in Christian community.

George Hunsinger is Professor of Systematic Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary. He is the founder of the National Religious Campaign Against Torture.
