Confessions in Worship and Life?

9:15 AM, Assembly Room, Dirk Smith

The Presbyterian and Reformed practice of weekly corporate confession of sin in worship, and weekly unison reading of a selection from a confession or creed in the PC(USA) Book of Confessions, often garners questions and strong reactions from congregants. Do Reformed people really need creeds and confessional documents? What role could they play in worship and life, and what role do they play?

A (Small) Community of Faith

Offering an opportunity for fellowship and conversation, small groups return to Nassau in the fall of 2018 with myriad offerings, each of which, in its own way, provides you with the opportunity for renewal. Small groups are about being transformed, learning something new, and meeting that person to whom you say, "Peace be with you," on Sunday, but don't really know. They are about binding ourselves together in a community of faith and becoming different people in the process. Pick up a brochure during Fellowship or from the literature rack to read more about the groups. Sign-up continues TODAY during Fellowship.

Love to sing, but can't get to adult choir?

Grace Note Singers is the answer. We are especially welcoming to those who have physical, visual, or schedule limitations which make it difficult to participate in adult choir. We meet Tuesdays, beginning September 25, from 1:00 to 2:15 PM in the Kingston Presbyterian Church Assembly Room (lower level).

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting will be held TODAY following the 11:00 AM service in the Assembly room. We will receive the Annual Financial Report for 2017-18 as well as the report of the Audit Committee. Both reports are available in the church office or on the website under the "Giving" tab.

Inquirers Class for Prospective Members

Come explore the meaning of Christian faith, church membership, and the foundations of the Presbyterian Church (USA) in classes on Sundays, October 14, 21, and 28; 9:30-10:30 AM in Niles Chapel; first floor. They are open to anyone wanting to discover more about our church and are required for those who wish to become church members. Your presence and membership mean everything to us!

Registration for Children and Youth

If your child is participating in any church programs this year (Church School, Choir, or Fellowship), it's time to submit the annual child registration form. Lauren Yeh will be in the Conference Room today after the Time with Children in each service, as well as during Fellowship, to assist you with the forms and answer any questions. Forms may also be picked up in the literature rack outside the church office. Completed forms can be mailed to the church (attention: Lauren Yeh) or left in the Forms Box on the desk in the church office.

Youth Fellowship

Sunday evening schedule kicks off TODAY. See “Today at Nassau” in the bulletin for times.

Breaking Bread

Beginning TODAY, college students, young adults, and all are invited to Breaking Bread, a community of saints and sinners who gather around Jesus’ table to worship, share stories, and grow as the beloved community. We worship in Niles Chapel at 6:30 PM.

Nassau Book Group

Nassau Book Group will meet on September 23 in Room 202 at 12:15 PM to discuss the historical work, Hamilton, by Ron Chernow (2016). Alexander Hamilton was one of the seminal figures in our history. His richly dramatic saga, rendered in Chernow’s vivid prose, is nothing less than a riveting account of America’s founding, from the Revolutionary War to the rise of the first federal government. Bring a sack lunch. Coffee and tea supplied. Be prepared to discuss the book. All are welcome.

Coat Drive

Princeton Theological Seminary is preparing to open its annual “Coat Shop.” Many international students arrive in New Jersey without adequate protection against our winters. To help prepare them for the winter, we are collecting unused and gently worn men’s and women’s light jackets, heavy coats, fleece pullovers and winter accessories. Please bring items to the collection bin in the hallway leading to the church office by October 18 or contact Arie if you would like to assist at the shop. Your help is appreciated!
