ADULT EDUCATION

TODAY

Jesus, Race & Incarceration: Why Our Faith Prevents Us from Looking the Other Way

9:15 AM, Assembly Room, Mary Beth Charters and Jonathan Shenk

How can faith intersect with activism?

NEXT SUNDAY

Nassau Church in the World: Trends and Current Commitments

9:15 AM, Assembly Room, David A. Davis

A look back at where we have been and where we are now related to the church's footprint in our community and in the world. Pastor Davis will present some history and track recent changes in our Mission and Outreach spending while discussing the intent and the discernment that impacts our spending beyond the walls of the church. If you want to know how Nassau Church spends its mission dollars, this presentation is for you!

WEEKLY

Colossians In-depth

9:15 AM, Maclean House, George Hunsinger.

Deacon Hand-Crafts for sale

Thanksgiving, Christmas, All-Occasion Cards & Ornaments will be available for sale TODAY and next week in support of our Nassau mission partners, the CETANA School in Myanmar and Villages in Partnership in Malawi. Our ginger cookie ornaments and hand-crafted cards are designed and created by members of Nassau. Stop by our table during fellowship in the Assembly Room and at noon outside the church office.

Taizé Trip Information Meeting TODAY, 12:00 PM, Assembly Room

Youth (15+) and Adults, July 17-28, 2019

Why Taizé? It's the French country side. It's a summer music festival. It's an international camp-out. It's a beautiful worship experience. It's a 5,000 kid hang-out. It's solitude & introspection. A monastic community founded after WWII to foster reconciliation and spiritual practice, Taizé now welcomes thousands of youth & young adults from around the world each week. This summer Nassau will travel to France and join the church universal for a week of community, prayer, song, and framping (French camping).

Youth Fellowship

All youth are invited to Fellowship and Dinner tonight. See "Today at Nassau" in the bulletin for times.

Breaking Bread

Breaking Bread is the worshipping community of Princeton Presbyterians, a campus ministry in Princeton. Our time together equips us to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly throughout the week. Come as you are on Sundays, 6:30 PM, Niles Chapel. Visit Princetonpresbys.org for more information or Contact Len Scales (lscales@princeton.edu).

Music at Nassau

Membership in our musical groups is always open. Check the website for information about rehearsal times and worship service responsibilities. To learn more, contact Lauren Yeh (x106_lyeh@nassauchurch.org).

Prayer Chain

To request prayer for yourself, a loved one, or a friend:

- fill out a pew prayer card and place it in the marked basket in the Narthex;
- write in the prayer book in the Narthex; or
- contact Deacon Debbi Roldan (4drold2010@gmail.com).

To join the prayer chain, send Debbi your email address or phone number.

Westminster Conservatory at Nassau

On Thursday, November 15 at 12:15 PM in Niles Chapel, High Winds, a woodwind trio consisting of Katherine McClure, flute; Melissa Bohl, oboe; and Kenneth Ellison, clarinet will perform the Trio in G Major by Franz Joseph Haydn, Aubade by Paul de Wailly; Suite for Three Treble Winds by Sparre Olsen, Nocturne by Marius Flotius, and The Old Man is Dancing by local composer Samuel Livingston. The first public performance of the Livingston work will take place at the November 15 recital.

"Gratitude Means Giving" Thanksgiving Project

Club 3·4·5ers will assemble Hygiene Kits for Church World Service on November 16 from 5:30–7:30 PM. In the face of natural disasters, violence, or poverty, Hygiene Kits can mean the difference between sickness and health for struggling families. A list of needed items are listed below.

Bring the items to Club 3·4·5 or drop off in the church office. All are welcome to donate.

- Hand towels (15" x 28" to 16" x 32")
- Washcloth
- Wide-tooth combs
- Fingernail or toenail clippers
- Bars of soap in the wrapper
- Toothbrushes in the package
- Band-Aids (1" x 3")

Nassau Book Group

will meet November 18 at 12:15 PM in Room 202 to discuss The Book of Fires by Jane Borodale. It is a captivating, atmospheric debut novel of fireworks, fortune, and a young woman's redemption. Set in 1752 England, an unhappy seventeen-year-old girl escapes her rural home and arrives in London pregnant, lost and frightened. Bring a sack lunch.

New School for Music Study recital: At the Movies!

Please join us Sunday, November 18 at 2:30 PM in the sanctuary for a recital of piano music featured in movies. Families will enjoy recognizable music from some of their favorite movies, including Aladdin, The Greatest Showman, La La Land, and MORE!

This recital is great for children so please invite your friends!

Thanksgiving Feast with Princeton Presbyterians

Undergraduates, graduate students, young adults, and friends of Princeton Presbyterians are invited to a potluck feast in the Assembly Room at 6:30 PM on Sunday, November 18. Bring yourself, bring a friend, and bring a side dish or dessert to share.

Contact Len Scales (lscales@princeton.edu).

Start Your Advent with an Evening of Jazz!

On December 1 at 5:00 PM, Nassau Church will be holding an evening Advent service led by renowned jazz musician, Ike Sturm and his ensemble of voice, saxophone, vibraphone and bass. Familiar carols and newly-composed and improvised pieces will be woven through prayer and scripture for a truly remarkable beginning to the Advent season. The Ike Sturm Ensemble is regularly featured at Saint Peter's Church (the "Jazz Church") in New York. A free-will offering benefiting Arm in Arm will be collected, and the service will be followed by a reception. Learn more about the Ike Sturm ensemble at www.ikesturm.com, and be sure to bring your family and friends!
