ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

Beyond the Garden

9:15 AM, Assembly Room, Anne Whitaker Stewart

The first family grapples with desire, jealousy, knowledge, and the mysterious nature of God's favor.

NEXT SUNDAY

It's Complicated: At Home with Abraham, Sarah, and Hagar

9:15 AM, Assembly Room, Jacq Lapsley

We all know families are complicated, our own included. But fraught family dynamics are not a modern invention. Within their complicated blended family, Abraham, Sarah, Hagar, Ishmael, and Isaac are all enmeshed in a web of anxiety, love, jealousy, longing, rage, violence, and more. Plus God is a major player in their story, in both inspiring and disturbing ways. Come explore this fascinating, difficult story, and reflect on how the messiness of this biblical family can help us think about our own families.

Young Adult Volunteers

Considering a gap year? Young adults are invited to explore the possibility of a year of service at one of many locations across the US or around the world through the PC(USA)'s Young Adult Volunteer program. This opportunity is for people 19–30 years old, and offers travel and vocational discernment in community, as well as service to God and others.

Thank you from Arm in Arm

Nassau Presbyterian Church has supported the Arm In Arm Hunger Prevention program for 38 years, with great generosity and a deep understanding of the problems facing food-insecure neighbors. Recently, as our friends at Nassau and Trinity Churches came together to collect food for our pantries, we were again reminded of this valued partnership. When Arm In Arm needed the help of our community to meet increased need at a time when our food inventory had run low, you were there for us. This holiday season, as families from across Mercer County visit our food pantries, they will find amply stocked shelves and a welcome variety of food donated by our friends at Nassau Church. Thank you for participating in this effort to put healthy food on the tables of those who turn to us in times of need. We truly are better together!
