One Great Hour of Sharing

TODAY we will collect the special offering for One Great Hour of Sharing, which supports projects that aim to break cycles of poverty, hunger, and thirst. It also provides disaster and crisis relief. Seeking to respond to Jesus' ministry to the most vulnerable, this ecumenical effort started in 1949 and now supports projects in more than 100 countries. The children of the church will bring their "Fish Banks" forward for this offering during the processional, and we are invited to join them and Christians across the country in opening our hearts to witness tangibly through this offering to the providential love of God. Make your gift during the Offering using the special pew envelopes.

Spring Clean Up – TODAY

The property committee invites you to participate in a spring clean up and spruce up of our grounds on 3 Sundays after worship. Join us on any or all days with your gardening gloves and we'll provide the bagels.

TODAY, 12:15-2:00 PM, Sunday, May 5, 12:15-2:00 PM and Sunday, June 2, 11:15-1:00 PM. All are welcome.

Piano Music of Debussy and Readings of Family Letters in April 25 Conservatory Noontime Recital

On Thursday, April 25, at 12:15 PM Westminster Conservatory at Nassau will present pianist Mary Greenberg performing music of Claude Debussy. Including a reading of letters from the Debussy family, this free recital will take place in the Niles Chapel.

Nassau Book Group

We will meet on Sunday, April 28th at 11:45 AM at the home of Jack and Maryellen Smiley to discuss All the King's Men by Robert Penn Warren. This novel is one of American literature's definitive political novels, as well as a profound study of human fallibility in politics. Set in the 1930s, it describes the dramatic rise to power, as state governor, of Willie Stark, a one-time radical attorney. This Pulitzer Prize winner is a political tragedy, a study of individual corruption, and a compelling southern drama with a long afterlife. Bring a sack lunch. Coffee and tea are supplied.
