NEXT SUNDAY

Questioning Jesus

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Shane Berg

The answers that Jesus gave to the questions posed by his followers, and those he met as he traveled to Jerusalem, offered insights, comfort, and challenges. Why did he respond in the ways that he did? This weekly in-depth study of texts from the Gospel of Luke will place Jesus' responses in historical, social, and theological context, leading us to a deeper understanding of the intent and significance of his words.

Luke 18: 18-30

“What must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Nassau Book Group

We will meet on Sunday, April 28th at 11:45 AM at the home of Jack and Maryellen Smiley to discuss All the King's Men by Robert Penn Warren. This novel is one of American literature's definitive political novels, as well as a profound study of human fallibility in politics. Set in the 1930s, it describes the dramatic rise to power, as state governor, of Willie Stark, a one-time radical attorney. This Pulitzer Prize winner is a political tragedy, a study of individual corruption, and a compelling southern drama with a long afterlife. Bring a sack lunch. Coffee and tea are supplied.
