ADULT EDUCATION

NEXT SUNDAY

Joy to the World: A Reappraisal of Isaac Watts' 1719 Psalter

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Martin Tel

Oscar Wilde said “there seems to be some curious connection between piety and poor rhymes.” In fact, for many Presbyterians in the 18th century, beautiful lyrics were considered suspect. In such an environment, Watts’ Psalter set off alarm bells with lines such as Joy to the world, the Lord is come and Jesus shall reign where'er the sun. Denominations split over the question of singing these paraphrases in church. In this 300th anniversary year of Watts’ revolutionary Psalter, we will consider some of these well-loved texts and the impact that they have had on Presbyterian worship through the centuries.

Time for a Summer Update

Is your contact information changing this summer? Let the church office know by taking a moment to update your My Nassau profile.

My Nassau offers you many helpful tools, and it also helps our pastors and staff run church programs (for one, it’s how we make the email list for our News from Nassau newsletter). You can also use it to track your giving and view the church photo directory.

Visit nassauchurch.org/mynassau to learn more, and call the office if you need any help. By the way, your My Nassau login also works for the Church Life app, a handy way to access the same features from your phone.
