ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

Galileo on Science and Scripture

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Eileen Reeves

In 1615 Galileo Galilei's Letter to the Grand Duchess Cristina argued for the compatibility of science and scripture, or at least for the relative autonomy of each body of knowledge. Come learn more about Galileo's treatise and discuss the various ways in which the relationship of science and scripture is treated in the present day.

NEXT SUNDAY

There will be no Adult Education on June 23. Join us again on June 30.

Time for a Summer Update

Is your contact information changing this summer? Let the church office know by taking a moment to update your My Nassau profile.

My Nassau offers you many helpful tools, and it also helps our pastors and staff run church programs (for one, it's how we make the email list for our News from Nassau newsletter). You can also use it to track your giving and view the church photo directory.

Visit nassauchurch.org/mynassau to learn more, and call the office if you need any help. By the way, your My Nassau login also works for the Church Life app, a handy way to access the same features from your phone.

Museum of the Bible – Saturday, June 29

Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church would like to invite members of Nassau to join us on a trip to the Museum of the Bible in Washington DC on Saturday, June 29, 7:00 AM–9:00 PM, from the Mountain Lakes Nature Preserve Parking Lot. The cost per person to cover the trip (bus and museum tickets included) is $90 per person.

The Museum includes artifacts, short films, panoramas, technology-enhanced exhibits, and a biblically themed restaurant. It tells the story of how the Bible came to us, illustrates the culture, and of special interest is a current exhibit called "The Slave Bible: Let the Story Be Told."
