ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

An Introduction to St. Augustine's Confessions

11:30 AM, Assembly Room, Paul Rorem

The Confessions of St. Augustine, one of the most influential books of the Christian tradition, recalls important events of the author's life, including: life with his devoutly Christian mother in rural 4th century Algeria; his struggles with human desires, his eventual renunciation of secular ambitions and marriage; and the recovery of his Christian faith.

NEXT SUNDAY

Shakespeare and the Bible

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Rhodri Lewis

Writing before the publication of the King James Version of the Bible, William Shakespeare relied for the most part on the Geneva Bible. Rather than turning to scripture as a source of truth or meaning as earlier dramatists did, we find him treating scripture like any other source. Come learn how Shakespeare explores the tensions about the authority of scripture that dominated so much of public life in the century after Martin Luther posted his 95 theses.

June Hunger Offering

TODAY we will receive the monthly Hunger Offering, a designated special offering for alleviating hunger in our community and around the world. The Mission Committee thanks all who contributed to the Offering for May, which totaled $2,320, and asks for your continued support and prayers to end hunger.

Summer Church School Volunteers Needed

Would you consider assisting in Summer Church School? We offer two classes, one for children in preschool, and one for kindergarten to grade two. Summer Lead Teachers are already in place. Sign up to be an adult helper for the weeks of your choice through September 1. Youth helpers are also welcome to join as additional helpers.

Time for a Summer Update

Is your contact information changing this summer? Let the church office know by taking a moment to update your My Nassau profile.

My Nassau offers you many helpful tools, and it also helps our pastors and staff run church programs (for one, it’s how we make the email list for our News from Nassau newsletter). You can also use it to track your giving and view the church photo directory.

Visit nassauchurch.org/mynassau to learn more, and call the office if you need any help. By the way, your My Nassau login also works for the Church Life app, a handy way to access the same features from your phone.

Register now for “It’s Cool in the Furnace!”

Be a part of our summer chancel drama: music (instruments, singing), staging, costumes, microphones, bible study, snacks, fun. Rising grade 3 through 12.

Join us this August 7–11!

Witherspoon Partnership Summer Reading

The Witherspoon Church–Nassau Church Joint Mission Collaboration Committee will be reading Radical Reconciliation, Beyond Political Pietism and Christian Quietism by Allan Aubrey Boesak and Curtiss Paul DeYoung over the summer. The congregations of both churches are invited to join in the reading of this important book to promote a common language around reconciliation.

Loaves and Fishes: Save the Date

Save the date for Loaves and Fishes on Saturday, August 24. For over 25 years, we, the disciples of Jesus, have gone on this 2nd to last Saturday in August to St. Mary’s Cathedral in Trenton to serve a meal to the hungry. As the summer heat cranks up and money runs low, dozens of hungry families will look to our church community for help. We need people to make meatloaf, bake cookies, assemble bag lunches, cook, serve, and clean up. Online signups will open soon. Volunteer to be a team leader by emailing Scott Harmon now.

Please let Sarah Finbow know if you plan to attend by Monday, July 8 so that we can give them an accurate count.
