ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

Storm Center Report: Ethical Reflections on the U.S. Supreme Court's 2018-2019 Term

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Larry Stratton

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes once observed that the U.S. Supreme Court is a “storm center” of political controversy. This session will focus on several of the U.S. Supreme Court's decisions including: census questions about citizenship; the constitutional status of religious symbols on public memorials; gerrymandering of legislative districts; out-of-state wine purchases; double jeopardy in state and federal prosecutions; and other critical cases.

NEXT SUNDAY

Political and Constitutional Crises in Historical Perspective

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Jim McPherson

In the midst of a political crisis, people tend to think nothing could be worse. Join us for a look back at previous occasions in American history when democracy, or even national survival, was threatened, perhaps even greater threats than today.

Summer Bell Choir

Summer Bell Choir presents special music on Sunday, July 28. All are welcome to join for rehearsal at 9:00 AM and ringing in the morning service at 10:00 AM. Music selections are accessible for both experienced and novice handbell ringers, so all are welcome and encouraged to join! Bell choir director Robert Lamb will assist new ringers throughout the rehearsal process. Come join the fun!

Extra Giving Opportunity

After several years, Nassau is once again partnering with Westminster Presbyterian Church in Trenton to provide a summer program for children and youth from the Trenton community. If you are willing to prayerfully consider making a gift to Westminster in addition to your generous pledge to Nassau, please contact Linda Gilmore or bring a check to the church office with Westminster Partnership in the memo line.

Feeding of the Few Dozen

A note from Scott Harmon on our upcoming congregational day of service at Loaves and Fishes at St. Mary's Cathedral, Trenton, on Saturday, August 24:

Loaves and Fishes takes its name from the Biblical story of “The Feeding of the 5,000.” I propose that we call it “The Feeding of the Few Dozen.” Sure, the multitudes are fed loaves and fishes. But volunteering for Loaves and Fishes, whether it's donating food, money, or time, is an opportunity to be fed and to join our community of faith in action. We do what our Lord asks of us. As we prepare meals, serve, and clean up, we are serving our most vulnerable neighbors, and if you can take a moment to breathe on that busy day, you'll find that you are being filled and sustained, too. Read more and find out how to participate at nassauchurch.org/loaves-fishes. Want to volunteer to lead a team? Contact Scott Harmon.

Princeton Presbyterians Summer Book Club

Young adults are invited to Princeton Presbyterians' summer book club on Wednesdays (July 17, 24, and 31). We'll meet in the Conference Room from 7:00–8:00 PM with tasty cold treats to discuss Rachel Held Evans' book Inspired. Please contact Andrew Scales if you have questions or need a book. Join us for great summertime fellowship!

Summer Choir

Join the Summer Choir as your schedule allows on Sundays through September 2. We rehearse at 9:00 AM in the Music Room for the morning service, learning music that is easily prepared in one rehearsal. Supported by our section leaders, singers of all abilities, middle school and older, are welcome for this “come as you are” choir. Join us and make a joyful noise unto God.

Prayer Chain

To request prayer for yourself, a loved one, or a friend:

- fill out a pew prayer card and place it in the marked basket in the Narthex;
- write in the prayer book in the Narthex; or
- contact Debbi Roldan (4drold2010@gmail.com)

To join the prayer chain, send Debbi your email address or phone number.

Pack Suitcases For Malawi

Stephanie Patterson, Madelyn Patterson, and Loretta & Bob Wells are traveling in August to Malawi, Africa, on a friendship trip with our mission partner, Villages in Partnership. Help fill their “extra” suitcases! Requested items include:

- Shoes (flip-flops and soccer cleats most appreciated)
- Toothbrushes and toothpaste
- Unscented soaps
- Light-weight blankets
- Crayons

Place goods in the collection bin in the church office by Sunday, July 28. Please also keep Barbara Edwards and the July medical mission team in prayer along with the August friendship trip and all our mission partners in Malawi. Thank you!

Summer Church School Volunteers Needed

Would you consider assisting in Summer Church School? We offer two classes, one for children in preschool, and one for kindergarten to grade two. Summer Lead Teachers are already in place. Sign up to be an adult helper for the weeks of your choice through September 1. Youth are also welcome to join as additional helpers.

Witherspoon Partnership Summer Reading

The Witherspoon Church–Nassau Church Joint Mission Collaboration Committee will be reading Radical Reconciliation, Beyond Political Pietism and Christian Quietism by Allan Aubrey Boesak and Curtiss Paul DeYoung over the summer. The congregations of both churches are invited to join in the reading of this important book to promote a common language around reconciliation.

Time for a Summer Update

Is your contact information changing this summer? Let the church office know by taking a moment to update your My Nassau profile.

My Nassau offers you many helpful tools, and it also helps our pastors and staff run church programs (for one, it’s how we make the email list for our News from Nassau newsletter). You can also use it to track your giving and view the church photo directory.

Visit nassauchurch.org/mynassau to learn more or create an account, and call the office if you need any help. By the way, your My Nassau login also works for the Church Life app, a handy way to access the same features from your phone.

Witherspoon Church Picnic

The congregation of Nassau Church is invited to the Witherspoon Church Outdoor Worship and Picnic TODAY from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM at Van Nest Park, 218 Cranbury Road, West Windsor Township, New Jersey. Head over and join the fun after worship!
