Political and Constitutional Crises in Historical Perspective

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Jim McPherson

In the midst of a political crisis, people tend to think nothing could be worse. Join us for a look back at previous occasions in American history when democracy, or even national survival, was threatened, perhaps by even greater threats than today.

NEXT SUNDAY

Are We in a Constitutional Crisis?

11:15 AM, Assembly Room, Keith Whittington

American political rhetoric is increasingly filled with cries of constitutional crisis. What does constitutional crisis even mean, and how would we know if we were in one? When do political dysfunction, disagreement and scandal signal more fundamental problems with the constitutional order, and what are the dangers of declaring a crisis prematurely?

School Supplies for Children in Trenton

A new school year brings excitement and lots of new gear. The supplies add up. The average family spends over $170 per student on school supplies alone, just too much for many families in our area. We are once again joining with Westminster Presbyterian Church, our partner church in Trenton, to provide 200 backpacks filled with essentials for local kids. Please choose an item or two to donate from our Back-to-School display on the Great Wall. Thanks to the generosity of Princeton University Class of 1974, money has already been donated to purchase the backpacks for this fall! If you would like to make an additional financial contribution, this will be used by Westminster to handpick toys for young people in their community.

Help us fill 200 backpacks—stop by the Great Wall and pick what you want to donate. Supplies and monetary donations can be dropped off in the church office through Sunday, August 11 (note the earlier date this year). Make checks out to Nassau Presbyterian Church, noting "GetSET" in the memo line. Thank you!

Feeding of the Few Dozen

A note from Scott Harmon on our upcoming congregational day of service at Loaves and Fishes at St. Mary's Cathedral, Trenton, on Saturday, August 24.

Loaves and Fishes takes its name from the famous story known as "The Feeding of the 5,000." I propose that we call it "The Feeding of the Few Dozen." Sure, the multitudes are fed loaves and fishes. But volunteering for Loaves and Fishes, whether it's donating food, money, or time, is an opportunity to be fed as well, to join and be a part of our community of faith in action, as we do what our Lord asked of us. As we prepare meals, serve, and clean up, we are serving our most vulnerable neighbors, and if you can take a moment to breathe on that busy day, you'll find that you are being filled and sustained, too.

Read more and find out how to participate at nassauchurch.org/loaves-fishes. Sign up online or at the table on the Front Plaza after worship. Donating meatloaves and cookies? Marked spaces are available now in the refrigerator and freezer in the church kitchen. Let's fill them up!

Witherspoon Partnership Summer Reading

The Witherspoon Church–Nassau Church Joint Mission Collaboration Committee will be reading Radical Reconciliation, Beyond Political Pietism and Christian Quietism by Allan Aubrey Boesak and Curtiss Paul DeYoung over the summer. The congregations of both churches are invited to join in the reading of this important book to promote a common language around reconciliation.

Time for a Summer Update

Is your contact information changing this summer? Let the church office know by taking a moment to update your My Nassau profile.

My Nassau offers you many helpful tools, and it also helps our pastors and staff run church programs (for one, it’s how we make the email list for our News from Nassau newsletter). You can also use it to track your giving and view the church photo directory.

Visit nassauchurch.org/mynassau to learn more or create an account, and call the office if you need any help. By the way, your My Nassau login also works for the Church Life app, a handy way to access the same features from your phone.

Lois Young and Sue Jennings are leading a trip to Myanmar this fall on behalf of Nassau’s international mission partner, Cetana. The date of the tour is October 9–20.
