Nassau Book Group

Join us TODAY in Room 202 at 12:15 PM to discuss Toni Morrison's book Jazz. The late Pulitzer Prize winner who taught at Princeton University wrote this Faulkner-like story by beginning the novel with violence, then jumping from present to past in the lives of the characters that inhabit the tale. Set in the 1880s South to the urban North, a narrator's voice weaves this fiction, showing how its blues are informed by the brutal exigencies of slavery. Bring a sack lunch. Coffee and tea are provided. All are welcome.
