ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

Exodus: Wilderness Formation—From Call to Crossing (Exodus 1-15)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Anne Stewart

NEXT SUNDAY

Exodus: Wilderness Formation—Lost and Found in the Wilderness (Exodus 16-18)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Jacq Lapsley

Do a deep dive into Exodus this Fall. Read the stories, remember the events, and revisit the characters that are formative to our faith. Each Sunday, in this 5-week series, we will focus on a handful of chapters and learn how God forms a people and the people, in turn, take leadership in shaping their relationship with God. Many of the Fall Small Groups will be discussing Exodus and Dave Davis will be preaching the same passages in worship.

WEEKLY

Colossians In-Depth

9:15 AM, Maclean House, George Hunsinger

Lunch with VIP Guests

Join us TODAY at 12:15 PM in the Assembly Room for a lunch to celebrate Villages in Partnership (VIP) staff visiting from Malawi. Enjoy conversations with Nassau members who have traveled to Malawi, and hear more about this international partnership.

Princeton Cemetery Tour, Sunday, October 13

There will be guided walking tour of the Princeton Cemetery NEXT Sunday, October 13 at 1:15 PM. It will begin at the cemetery entrance at 29 Greenview Avenue. There is no charge and all are invited to attend. The tour will highlight many of the more interesting graves as well as point out some of the sections of the cemetery ranging from the original Old Graveyard and President's Plot of Princeton University to the most recently added Pardee Memorial Garden.

Contact Linda Gilmore 609-924-0103, linda@nassauchurch.org.

Children's Choirs Family Reminder

There will be no Children's Choir Rehearsals, Homework Hangout or In-Choir Bible Study on Wednesday, October 9.

Become a Member of Nassau Church Today

To be Presbyterian is to join a way of life informed by a sacred rhythm: God calls us in grace and love; we respond in gratitude. Come explore church membership in Inquirers Classes for New Members TODAY, October 13, and 20, 9:30–10:30 AM in Niles Chapel; first floor. Classes are open to anyone wanting to discover more about our church and are required for those who wish to become church members. Your presence means everything to us!

Coat Drive

Princeton Theological Seminary is preparing to open its annual "Coat Shop." Many international students arrive in New Jersey without adequate protection against our winters. To help them prepare, we are collecting unused and gently worn men's and women's light jackets, heavy coats, fleece pullovers and winter accessories. Please bring items to the collection rack in the Assembly Room by Wednesday, October 16 or contact Arie if you would like to assist at the shop. Your help is appreciated!

Youth Fellowship

All Youth are invited to Fellowship and Dinner tonight. See “Today at Nassau” in the bulletin for times. Contact Mark Edwards (mark@nassauchurch.org).

Breaking Bread

Sundays, 6:30 PM in Niles Chapel. Breaking Bread is the worshipping community of Princeton Presbyterians, a campus ministry in Princeton. Our time together equips us to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly throughout the week. Undergraduate students, graduate students, young adults, and friends are invited to come as you are. Visit princetonpresbys.org for more information or contact Andrew Scales (ascales@princeton.edu).

Music at Nassau

Membership in our musical groups is always open. Check the website for information about rehearsal times and worship service responsibilities. To learn more, contact Lauren Yeh (x106, lyeh@nassauchurch.org).

Prayer Chain

To request prayer for yourself, a loved one, or a friend:

- fill out a pew prayer card and place it in the marked basket in the Narthex;
- write in the prayer book in the Narthex; or
- contact Debbi Roldan (4droid2010@gmail.com)

To join the prayer chain, send Debbi your email address or phone number.

Fall Small Groups – Forming Community

Questions about community are in the headlines and preoccupy modern life. Are communities strong when defined by common beliefs, or distinguished by a diversity of gifts? Several of Nassau’s Fall Small Groups will study the book of Exodus and learn how God formed a group of wandering refugees into a (mostly) faithful community. Groups are still forming, sign-up on MyNassau.

Westminster Conservatory at Nassau

On Thursday, October 17 at 12:15 PM in Niles Chapel, Dezheng Ping, violin and Larissa Korkina, piano, members of the teaching faculty of Westminster Conservatory, will perform works for violin and piano, Johann N. Hummel’s Sonata, op. 64 and the Sonata No. 3 in C Minor, op. 45 for violin and piano by Edvard Grieg. Open to the public and free of charge.

Senior Adult Lunch October 20

Senior adults are invited to a fellowship lunch Sunday Oct. 20, 12:15 PM in the Assembly Room. Our lunch includes a presentation by our 2019/2020 Artist in Residence, Trudy Borenstein-Sugiura, who will show us the design concept for the May art installation and share the many ways we can participate in its creation. $8.00 per person. Come and enjoy friendship and conversation.

2019-2020 Artist Residency

The Worship and Arts committee is pleased to announce our new Artist-in-Residence, Trudy Borenstein-Sugiura. Trudy is local collage artist commissioned for a Nassau community work created from the papers and materials important to (and provided by) our congregation. All ages can participate. Join us for the informational presentation on October 20, at 12:15 PM where you will be able to see a sketch of the final design and even begin to add to the work yourself! This residency is supported by the Frances Clark Fund and the Ammons Music Fund. You can learn more about Trudy on our church website in the music and arts section of congregational life.

Coffee with Princeton Presbyterians

Undergraduates, graduate students, and young adults are invited to gather on the front plaza at 10:15 AM on Sundays. This is a casual time of fellowship between the 9:15 AM and 11:00 AM worship services. Coffee and baked goods are our treat.
