NEXT SUNDAY

Promise Fulfilled: Jesus saves us from hopelessness to hope (Luke 1:5-25)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Eric Barreto

Come explore the Shape of Salvation in the Gospel of Luke this Lent. In Luke's narrative, Jesus preaches salvation for all who believe in him. But what does salvation mean? Is it only a future hope or possibly a present reality? What are Jesus' followers saved from? And what are they (and we) saved to?

Join us each Sunday morning through April 5 as we examine not only the biblical and historical context of Luke's narrative of Jesus' life and ministry but also its timely and timeless impact on our lives today.

Devotions for a Lenten Journey

To help strengthen, inspire, and connect our community of faith, the Adult Education Committee has gathered reflections for Lent, written by members and friends of the Nassau congregation. Stop by the table during Fellowship to pick up a print copy or find out how you can access the meditations on line or by regular daily early morning email.

New Art Show Opens TODAY

The Conference Room Art Show features photography by Nassau member, Larry Parsons from his 2014 trip to the sub-Saharan African countries of Botswana, Zambia, Namibia, Zimbabwe, and South Africa. He states, "The monochromatic format seems to have a quality of timelessness... the absence of the bright African colors in the images emphasizes the connection to and relationship of the viewer with the subjects."

The Power of Photography

On Sunday March 8, you are invited to meet in the conference room at 12:15 for bagels and coffee with Larry Parsons, followed by a tour of "Life Magazine and the Power of Photography" at the Princeton University Art Museum. Limited to 20 people.

Coffee with Princeton Presbyterians

Undergraduates, graduate students, and young adults are invited to gather at Chez Alice Café between 10:20 and 10:50 AM on Sundays. This is a casual time of fellowship between Nassau's morning worship services. Coffee and baked goods are our treat.
