ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

Promise Fulfilled: Jesus saves us from hopelessness to hope (Luke 1:5-25)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Eric Barreto

NEXT SUNDAY

Freedom Fulfilled: Jesus saves us from oppression to liberation (Luke 4:16-30)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Eric Barreto

Come explore the Shape of Salvation in the Gospel of Luke this Lent. In Luke's narrative, Jesus preaches salvation for all who believe in him. But what does salvation mean? Is it only a future hope or possibly a present reality? What are Jesus' followers saved from? And what are they (and we) saved to?

Join us each Sunday morning we examine not only the Biblical and historical context of Luke's narrative of Jesus' life and ministry but also its timely and timeless impact on our lives today.

Easter Flowers and Brass

We invite you to give in memory or in honor of a loved one for our Easter tulips and Easter brass ensemble, which will adorn and be heard throughout the church on Easter Sunday. A listing of all commemorations will be printed in the worship bulletin on Easter Sunday. After worship deacons deliver the tulips to the ill, homebound, and bereaved. For your convenience, order cards are available in the main office. Checks can be made payable to Nassau Presbyterian Church. The deadline is March 29.

Lenten Home Dinners with Communion – sign up TODAY

Come to the table of grace.

You are warmly invited to a Lenten Home Dinner with Communion hosted by a family in our church. These casual, welcoming groups are a lovely way to extend the table and expand your fellowship this Lent.

Sign up at nassauchurch.org/lenten-home-dinners-2020/ or call the church office (609-924-0103) for more information.

Devotions for a Lenten Journey

To help strengthen, inspire, and connect our community of faith, the Adult Education Committee has gathered reflections for Lent, written by members and friends of the Nassau congregation. Stop by the table during Fellowship to pick up a print copy or find out how you can access the meditations online or by regular daily early morning email.

Art Show

The Conference Room Art Show features photography by Nassau member, Larry Parsons from his 2014 trip to the sub-Saharan African countries of Botswana, Zambia, Namibia, Zimbabwe, and South Africa. He states, "The monochromatic format seems to have a quality of timelessness... the absence of the bright African colors in the images emphasizes the connection to and relationship of the viewer with the subjects."

The Power of Photography

On Sunday March 8, you are invited to meet in the conference room at 12:15 PM for bagels and coffee with Larry Parsons, followed by a tour of "Life Magazine and the Power of Photography" at the Princeton University Art Museum. Limited to 20 people.

Youth Fellowship

All youth are invited to Fellowship and Dinner tonight. See "Today at Nassau" on the bulletin back page for times.

Breaking Bread Worship

Sundays 6:30 PM in Niles Chapel. Breaking Bread is the worshipping community of Princeton Presbyterians, a campus ministry in Princeton. Our time together equips us to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly throughout the week. Undergraduate students, graduate students, young adults, and friends are invited to come as you are. Visit princetonpresbys.org for more information or contact Andrew Scales (ascales@princeton.edu).

Music at Nassau

Membership in our music groups is always open. Check the website for information about rehearsal times and worship service responsibilities. To learn more, contact Lauren Yeh (lyeh@nassauchurch.org, x106).

Prayer Chain

To request prayer for yourself, a loved one, or a friend:

- fill out a pew prayer card and place it in the marked basket in the Narthex;
- write in the prayer book in the Narthex; or
- contact Debbi Roldan (4droid2010@gmail.com)

To join the prayer chain, send Debbi your email address or phone number.

Choir Concert March 21, 7:00 PM

The William & Mary Choir, under the direction of James Armstrong, will visit Nassau Church on March 21st as part of their spring concert tour. The program, entitled "A Trip Around the World: Postcards from the American South, Europe, Japan and South Korea," will feature premiere performances of two works commissioned in connection with their Japanese and South Korean tour in May of 2020 as well as works by Debussy, Latvian composers Vasks and Ābele, and concert arrangements of African American spirituals. Admission is free and open to the public.

Family and Friends Adult/Child CPR

Penn Medicine Princeton Health is offering a CPR class on Sunday, March 22, from 12:00–2:00 PM in the Assembly Room. Learn how to perform CPR and help someone who is choking. Open to all who want to learn CPR but do not need a course certification card. The class is free, but registration is required.
