ADULT EDUCATION

THIS SUNDAY

Freedom Fulfilled: Jesus saves us from oppression to liberation (Luke 4:16-30)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Eric Barreto

NEXT SUNDAY

Hunger Fulfilled: Jesus saves us from hunger to an abundant table (Luke 7:36-50)

9:30 AM, Assembly Room, Eric Barreto

Come explore the Shape of Salvation in the Gospel of Luke this Lent. In Luke's narrative, Jesus preaches salvation for all who believe in him. But what does salvation mean? Is it only a future hope or possibly a present reality? What are Jesus' followers saved from? And what are they (and we) saved to?

Easter Flowers and Brass

We invite you to give in memory or in honor of a loved one for our Easter tulips and Easter brass ensemble, which will adorn and be heard throughout the church on Easter Sunday. A listing of all commemorations will be printed in the worship bulletin on Easter Sunday. After worship deacons deliver the tulips to the ill, homebound, and bereaved. Order cards are available in the main office. Checks can be made payable to Nassau Presbyterian Church. The deadline is March 29.

Devotions for a Lenten Journey

To help strengthen, inspire, and connect our community of faith, the Adult Education Committee has gathered reflections for Lent, written by members and friends of the Nassau congregation. Visit the website to read the days text – choose “Lenten Devotional” from the front page – or to find out how you can sign up to receive the daily email. Printed copies are available in the literature rack outside the main office while they last.

Refugee resettlement news

The Interfaith Refugee Resettlement Committee, an initiative of the Jewish Center, has recently welcomed to Princeton a family of six from Afghanistan. The committee would be grateful for help. The most pressing need is for a minivan and a job for the father. Volunteers for tutoring and driving are also needed.

To the Nassau Presbyterian Church Family,

We would like to assure you that your church staff has been discussing plans and making preparations in light of the rapid spread of the COVID-19 virus. Our resources have included the World Health Organization, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the State of New Jersey Department of Health, and the Presbyterian Church (USA). We are also reaching out to health care professionals in the congregation. Our commitment to you is to make responsible decisions without fueling fear and misinformation.

Please find the items below for your information, safety and health.

- Please remember to make responsible choices for your own health and the health of those around you. If you do not feel well, please do not come to worship and church activities. If you choose to be extra careful and refrain from gathering in groups and crowds, please know your church supports you.
- Church staff have created a handout on self-care and prevention with information from all the resources mentioned. It is available on Sunday and on our website.
- Extra bottles of sanitizer and bleach wipes will be available throughout the building and in classrooms. Remember, this is not a substitute for thoroughly washing hands with soap and hot water.
- Extra time and care will be taken in cleaning knobs, bars, and surfaces throughout the building.
- Lenten small group communion and Lenten home dinner communion will NOT be celebrated by intinction. Our traditional Presbyterian small cups or small glasses will be provided along with other materials.
- We are paying close attention to the directions of the State of New Jersey Department of Health while monitoring Princeton University, Princeton Theological Seminary and local schools. We are prepared to cancel all activity at 61 Nassau Street if necessary. If that action is required, sermons, music, prayers, and other worship resources will be prerecorded and available on our website.
- Ongoing discussions are being held to provide pastoral care for any who may be facing extended time in their home. We are also in touch with our area hospitals about clergy visitation, or restriction.

If you have any questions, please be in touch with any member of the staff and let us continue to prayer for the sick, medical and public officials, and all the vulnerable who live in fear.

With grace and peace, Rev. David A. Davis
