

Week 2: Questions for Discussion

- 1. Tell a story about a time when language or cultural differences were a gift, a blessing to you.
- 2. God has created you and the communities that nurtured you in a beautiful and particular way. The story of you and your community are special and a gift. What were the enduring values and commitments that the communities that nurtured you taught you?
- 3. Name some ways that your particular story is a help to you and to others in reading Scripture, in living out faith.