

Week 3: Questions for Discussion

1. What is the value of community in your life? In what ways have communities been a matter of life and death for you?
2. What are our obligations to one another in light of God resurrecting Jesus? If God brought Jesus back from the dead, what difference does that make for your everyday life?
3. In the future, how might new imaginations about community shape how you gather with neighbors?