EASTER SUNDAY

Gathering

God calls us together to offer praise, acknowledge sin,
and celebrate our adoption as forgiven children.

Prelude	Rejoice, the Lord Is King	Robert McNally
	Offertoire for Sabbato Sancto	Charles Tournemire
	Vernal Sequence	Michael Green
	Grand Chœur	Théodore Dubois

Call to Worship I Corinthians 15 : 50–58

♦ Opening Hymn Jesus Christ Is Risen Today Red Hymnal 232

At the sign ♦ you may stand. Hymn indicates the red pew hymnal Glory to God.
Bold text is read or sung in unison.

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God,
in raising Jesus from the grave,
you shattered the power of sin and death.
We confess we remain captive to doubt and fear,
bound by the ways that lead to death.
We overlook the poor and the hungry,
and pass by those who mourn;
we fail to hear the cries of the oppressed,
and are indifferent to calls for peace;
we despise the weak,
and abuse the earth you made.
Forgive us, God of mercy.
Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new,
that we may know the joy of life abundant
given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord.
Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends in Christ, hear and believe the good news of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

Words of Welcome

Proclaiming the Word

We encounter the Word in speech and song
as we interpret and expound scripture.

Time with Children

A Bible story and craft time for children age 2 to grade 2 will take place in room 07, lower level, during both services.

Anthem

My Hope Is Arisen

Prayer for Illumination

Living God, with joy we celebrate the presence of your risen Word.

Enliven our hearts by your Holy Spirit

so that we may proclaim the good news

of eternal and abundant life;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Scripture Lesson

Psalm 118

Blue Psalter 118 G

p. 753

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.” Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Sermon

Living Resurrection Now

David A. Davis

Thanksgiving

We respond by presenting our offerings, setting the table, lifting prayers, and praising the triune God.

- ♦ Sermon Hymn Christ Is Risen, Shout Hosanna Red Hymnal 248
- ♦ Affirmation of Faith Philippians 2 : 5–11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

Therefore, God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess to the glory of God:
Jesus Christ is Lord! Amen.
