NASSAU PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sundays, 9:30 AM in the Assembly Room, unless otherwise noted

A Moment to Decide

In 1964, a civil rights icon, a famous Black nationalist and a Presbyterian minister crossed paths in Cleveland, with tragic consequences. Michele Minter shares a civil rights story.

If you have never heard of the name Bruce Klunder, you are probably not alone. And yet, his name is one of only forty-one martyrs inscribed in the famous Civil Rights Memorial in Montgomery, Alabama.

Michele Minter is vice provost for institutional equity and diversity at Princeton University, where her work involves community building and institutional history. She is a trustee of the Princeton Theological Seminary and a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church. She lives in Plainsboro with her husband Jeff.
