

Adult Education January 2026

NASSAU PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sundays, 9:30 AM, in the Assembly Room, unless otherwise noted
Breakfast snacks will be ready by 9:15 AM

Each January, our meaningful tradition of intergenerational education brings together Middle School, High School, and Adults of all ages to share in food, fellowship, and the stories of God at work in our community. Over light breakfast and good conversation, we listen for the ways faith is lived, deepened, and discovered across generations.

This year's speakers offer a remarkable range of voices from within our own congregation—voices shaped by ministry, creativity, and leadership.

We begin with Felipe Paz, a Princeton Theological Seminary graduate and one of our dedicated Youth Advisors, who brings a pastor's heart and the perspective of walking alongside young people in faith. We continue with Dave Davis, Pastor and Head of Staff, who reflects on twenty-five years of ministry at Nassau and the stories that have shaped this community along the way. Mid-month, Christianne Lane invites us into "Rounded Prayer," presenting her own musical compositions as expressions of prayer, imagination, and faith. We conclude with Sarah Berliner, a current high school student, who will premiere her documentary interviewing Mary Bess Clark, Doodie Meyer, Nancy Prince, and Carol Wehrheim.

Come for the breakfast snack, stay for the wisdom, humor, creativity, and witness of your fellow Nassau pilgrims. All are welcome as we begin a new year listening for God's faithfulness among us.

Dave Davis

Dave is the senior pastor of Nassau Presbyterian Church, where he has served since 2000. He earned his Ph.D. in Homiletics from Princeton Theological Seminary and taught there for several years as a visiting lecturer. His scholarship focuses on preaching as a corporate act and the active role of the listener. Before coming to Princeton, he served for fourteen years as pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Blackwood, New Jersey.

Dave is the author of A Kingdom You Can Taste and Lord, Teach Us to Pray and has served on the boards of the Presbyterian Foundation and the Princeton YMCA. He has preached widely in the U.S. and internationally, including in South Africa and Scotland, as well as at the Calvin Symposium for Worship and on the campuses of Harvard and Duke.

A native of Pittsburgh, Dave is married to Cathy Cook Davis, also a Presbyterian minister. They have two children, Hannah and Ben, and two grandchildren, Franny and Maddy.

Christianne Bessières Lane

Christianne is a mom, wife, and musician. She with her flutist husband, John, has been a member of Nassau Presbyterian Church since 2003, and sang in the Adult Choir for several years before the gifts of her two children.

Now that her children are in school, she gratefully uses her gifts to create more music to serve God and beautify the world. Christianne has developed a musical and spiritual practice of creating rounds or canonic settings of biblical and other religious texts.
